CUSTOMER SERVICE AGREEMENT

We, Sydney Markets Limited, note our commitment to you as the following:

- We will advise you by notice, statement or invoice of the drawings.
- Where the due date falls on a non-business day, we will draw the amount on the next business day.
- We will provide written notice of any proposed changes to your drawing arrangement, providing no less than 14 days notice.
- We reserve the right to cancel the drawing arrangement if drawings are continually returned unpaid by your nominated Financial Institution. Where drawings are returned unpaid we will arrange with you an alternate payment method. A fee may apply for drawings that are returned unpaid.
- We will keep all information provided by you and details of your nominated account at the Financial Institution, private and confidential.
- We will investigate and deal promptly with any queries, claims or complaints regarding debits, providing a response within 20 business days.

You, the Customer, note your commitment to us as the following:

- It is your responsibility to check with your Financial Institution, prior to completing the Direct Debit Request, that direct debiting is available on that account.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that the authorisation on the Direct Debit Request is identical to the account signing instruction held by the Financial Institution of the nominated account.
- It is your responsibility to ensure at all times that sufficient funds are available in the nominated account to meet a drawing on the due date for payment.
- It is your responsibility to advise us if the account nominated by you to receive the drawings is altered, transferred or closed.
- It is your responsibility to arrange with us a suitable alternate payment method, if the drawing arrangements are stopped, either by you or the nominated Financial Institution.
- It is your responsibility to meet any charges resulting from the use of the Direct Debit System. This may include fees charged to us as a result of returned drawings.

You may request to defer or alter the agreed drawing schedule by giving written notice to us; such notice should be received by us at least 10 business days prior to the due date.

You may stop your individual debit by giving written notice to us; such notice should be received by us at least 10 business days prior to the due date.

You may cancel the Direct Debit arrangement at any time by giving written notice to us; such notice should be received by us at least ten (10) business days prior to the due date. Your nominated Financial Institution is unable to cancel your Direct Debit Arrangement.

All transaction disputes, queries, and claims should be raised directly with us. We will provide a verbal or written response within 20 business days from the date of the notice. If the claim/dispute is successful, we will reimburse you by way of cheque or electronic credit to your nominated account.

Disclosure Document

In this Disclosure Document, “us”, “we” or “our” means “Sydney Markets Limited ABN 51 077 119 290” and “you” or “your” refers to you being the purchaser of the electricity supply from us.

This document contains important information applicable to your agreed purchase of electricity from us.

We must disclose the information contained in this Disclosure Document to you at the start of your tenancy and at any time on request by you or the Australian Energy Regulator (“AER”).

1. Sydney Markets is an “Exempt Seller”

- 1.1 All electricity within the Markets is transmitted and distributed using our privately owned embedded network (“Network”).
- 1.2 We purchase electricity from a distributor in bulk and onsell this electricity to you and other occupiers in the Markets.
- 1.3 Under the National Energy Retail Law, all onselling within a private network must be undertaken by:
- (a) an authorised retailer (“Retailer”); or
 - (b) the holder of retailer exemption (“Exempt Seller”), registered with the AER.
- 1.4 We are registered as an Exempt Seller.

2. Your Rights and Protections

- 2.1 As a customer of an Exempt Seller, you have certain protections and rights that are set out in this Disclosure Document and the applicable conditions as referred to below.
- 2.2 These protections and rights are different to those that you would have if you purchased electricity from a Retailer.

3. Applicable Conditions

Retailer conditions do not apply to Exempt Sellers. Instead, we must comply with the conditions that apply to the “R1” and the “R5” exemption classes. These conditions are available on the AER’s website at www.aer.gov.au

4. Your Right to Choose Your Electricity Supplier

- 4.1 You are not obliged to purchase your electricity from us. You are entitled to choose who supplies you your electricity and you may elect to change at any time.
- 4.2 We will not discourage, unreasonably hinder or prevent you from exercising your choice or ability to find or obtain an electricity supply from a Retailer.
- 4.3 If you do elect to purchase your electricity from a Retailer, you should be aware that:
- (a) if you entered into an agreement for a fixed term with us and elect to change suppliers before the expiry of the term, an early termination charge may be applicable; and
 - (b) you must continue to pay us the network fee to enable you (and the Retailer) to access and use our Network (as varied from time to time); and
 - (c) the Retailer must provide you with an electricity meter to be installed at your supply address.

5. What You Will Be Charged

- 5.1 You must pay us for your supply of electricity at the relevant tariff together with the other fees and charges which are set out in the Pricing Schedule attached to this Disclosure Document.
- 5.2 We will provide notice to you of any change in your tariff, fees and charges as soon as practicable, and by no later than by your next bill.

6. Complaints and Dispute Resolution

- 6.1 In the event that you are not satisfied with our supply of electricity to you, you may contact us to enable us to resolve your complaint on the below contact details:

Telephone (Business Hours): (02) 9325 6225

Email: siteservices@sydneymarkets.com.au

- 6.2 We will make reasonable endeavours to resolve your complaint in a timely, effective and professional manner.
- 6.3 If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your reasonable satisfaction, you may contact the Ombudsman who will facilitate the resolution of your dispute free of charge and may make a binding decision in respect of the issue.

- 6.4 The Ombudsman’s contact details are as follows:

Telephone: 1800 246 545 (Free call)

Other contact details and further information is available on the Ombudsman’s website www.ewon.com.au.

7. In the Event of a Fault or Emergency

If you experience a supply fault or failure or in an emergency, please contact us on the below contact details:

Telephone (Business Hours): (02) 9325 6225

Telephone (24 hours): 0409 325 232 (Mobile rates apply)

8. Standard Terms and Conditions

Our supply of electricity to you is also governed by your lease, licence or other occupancy agreement and our Standard Terms and Conditions which are available on our website at <http://www.sydneymarkets.com.au/index-electricity.asp>
