You may apply for a grower's truck pass by completing the relevant application form, providing evidence of registration and paying the annual fee. Please apply at the market office in Market Building "D" for more information.

3.3 No parking elsewhere

You may not park elsewhere in the Markets. In particular You may not park in the areas designated for customers. This is to ensure customers have available parking in the Markets.

3.4 Vehicle access restrictions

You acknowledge that no buyers' Vehicles will be allowed into the Sydney Growers Market until 1 hour after the commencement of Trading Hours on any day the Sydney Growers Market is open for trading.

4. YOU MUST BE A GROWER

To hold your Licence and use and occupy the Premises in the Sydney Growers Market You must:

- (a) grow commercial quantities of farm produce (in the opinion of SML) on land in New South Wales (NSW):
 - (i) owned by You (either solely or jointly with another);
 - (ii) leased by You (either solely or jointly with another) and the lease being acceptable to SML in its absolute discretion; and
- (b) only Sell farm produce from the Premises that has been grown by You in accordance with clause 4(a).

5. COMPLIANCE

You must do all that is required by SML to satisfy itself of your compliance with clause 4 of this Schedule, including but not limited to allowing either SML or a horticulturalist engaged on SML's behalf to inspect the land referred to in clause 4(a) at any time with 7 days' notice in writing.

6. IF YOU CEASE TO BE A GROWER

If You do not comply with clause 4 of this Schedule then SML may give You notice of its intention to terminate your Licence in accordance with clause 23 of the Occupancy Agreement.

7. TEMPORARY NON-COMPLIANCE WITH CLAUSE 4

If You:

- (a) will not be able to comply with clause 4 of this Schedule for a period of less than 6 months; and
- (b) notify SML in advance of this non-compliance, then notwithstanding clause 6 of this Schedule SML will not give You notice of its intention to terminate your Licence.

You acknowledge and agree that during your period of non-compliance with clause 4 of this Schedule You will not be able to use and occupy the Premises but remain liable to SML for all Rents and Dues in respect of the Premises.

You further acknowledge and agree You may not re-commence your use and occupation of the Premises until You demonstrate to SML's satisfaction compliance with clause 4 of this Schedule.

8. GROWER TRADER

8.1 Conditions of Grower Trader

If You have been specifically classified by SML as a "Grower Trader" prior to 16th May 2012, then while you remain a Grower Trader and in addition to clause 4 of this Schedule, You may Sell from the Premises farm produce that was not grown by You in accordance with clause 4(a) but only if:

- (a) You Sell farm produce on behalf of other growers who have grown the relevant farm produce;
- (b) You have a written authority from the grower who has grown the relevant farm produce to sell that farm produce and this authority must be made available to SML upon request; and
- (c) You pay any additional fee requested by SML from time to time for the benefit of the rights granted by this clause.

8.2 Sydney Markets Purchases

In addition to Clause 9 of this Schedule, You may sell from your Stand produce purchased by You from the Sydney Produce Market and/or Sydney Growers Market.

8.3 Future classification of Grower Traders

- (a) On and from 16 May 2012, Growers will not be reclassified or classified as Grower Traders and only existing Grower Traders may trade under the Grower Traders classification.
- (b) Grower Traders who were classified as Grower Traders prior to 16th May 2012 may transfer Grower Trader stand/s in that classification, subject to SML's prior written approval and compliance with clause 5 of the Occupancy Agreement.

- (c) If a Grower Trader at the time of transfer does not expressly elect to be classified as a Grower Trader, then the relevant stand being transferred will revert to a Growers stand and will not be reclassified as a Grower Trader stand.
- (d) SML has absolute discretion to refuse a transfer of a Grower Trader stand if the transferee requires or proposes to be classified as Grower Trader.

9. AUTHORISED GOODS

Unless You receive written authorisation from SML to the contrary You may only Sell farm produce in the Sydney Growers Market. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing You may not Sell in the Sydney Growers Market:
